This Article shall be strictly enforced.

Section 2. No organization shall use the name of the Council without prior authorization.

Article XII Removal of Officers

Section 1. The Council, acting through its delegate body, may suspend or remove any officer or member of its Executive Board, Executive Committee or other governing body, on written charges, notice, and hearing for violation of the Constitution of the AFL-CIO, or of the Rules Governing AFL-CIO Area Labor Councils and Central Labor Councils, or the Constitution or Bylaws of this body, or for conduct unbecoming an officer of this body, misappropriation of funds, malfeasance in office or neglect of duty.

Section 2. Charges preferred under this Article must be made in writing and signed by at least three delegates. The charges shall be filed with the Executive Secretary-Treasurer, or with the President if the Executive Secretary-Treasurer is charged, who shall furnish a copy to the accused within five days after they are filed.

Section 3. At the next meeting of the delegate body, the presiding officer shall cause the charges as filed to be read to the delegate body. After discussion and consideration the following question shall be put to a vote: "Shall the charges as presented be deemed worthy of trial?"

Section 4. If the charges are, by a majority vote, found worthy of trial, they shall be referred to a special Trial Board of five delegates, who shall be elected by and from the delegate body. The defendant, or the persons preferring the charges, shall have the right to protest the election of any delegate on the Trial Board, provided that the protest is made at the time that the Trial Board is elected, but neither the defendant nor the persons preferring the charges shall have the right to challenge the election of more than three delegates.

Section 5. Any delegate in good standing shall be allowed to attend the trial as an observer and without voice.

Section 6. The findings and recommendations of the Trial Board shall be reported to the delegate body at its next regular meeting for disposition of the charges. The accused shall have the right to defense before the meeting of the delegate body.

Section 9. The decision of this body may be appealed to the President of the AFL-CIO, and thereafter to the Executive Council of the AFL-CIO, as provided in the Rules Governing AFL-CIO Area Labor Councils and Central Labor Councils. Pending such appeal, the decision of this body shall remain in effect unless a stay is ordered by the AFL-CIO.

Rules, Parliamentary Authority and Amendments

Section 1. This Council is a chartered, subordinate Central Labor Council of the AFL-CIO that is governed by this Constitution and the Constitution and Rules Governing Area Labor Councils and Central Labor Councils, Revised May 2011, or as may hereafter be amended. These Rules establish policies and regulations with regard to Strikes, Collective Bargaining, Boycotts and Unfair Lists, and Publications and Advertising, as well as other central labor council administrative activities that the Council must comply with; and, moreover, if any conflict should arise between this Constitution and/or actions of the Council and the Constitution of the AFL-CIO and/or its Rules Governing, the latter shall prevail. If this Council's charter is revoked, the Council will surrender the charter to the President of the AFL-CIO.

Section 2. When and if a circumstance or action causes the Council to be in non-compliance with the AFL-CIO, the Executive Board shall initiate corrective action to bring the Council into conformity with the Constitution of the AFL-CIO and its Rules Governing. The President of the AFL-CIO may order revisions to the constitution if it is not in compliance with the Rules Governing or the AFL-CIO Constitution and, if this occurs, the Council must give written notice that this has occurred and a copy of the revised constitution.

Section 3. The parliamentary rules contained in Robert's Rules of Order, Revised, shall govern this Council in all cases to which they are applicable and are not inconsistent with the Constitution and Bylaws or special rules of order adopted by the Council.

Section 4. This Constitution may be amended by submitting the proposed amendment(s), in writing, to the Recording Secretary at the preceding regular meeting provided at least six delegates representing at least three affiliated organizations certify, by signature, the changes proposed. The Executive Board or an appointed Constitution and Bylaws Committee may also propose amendments to this Constitution. All proposed amendments to this Constitution must be read in full at the meeting at which they are first received and/or presented and copies shall be made available upon request to all delegates prior to final consideration at the subsequent meeting. Council adopted amendments, subject to the quorum provisions of Article V, Section 3, shall require a two-thirds vote of the delegates present and voting for approval. The amendment(s) upon adoption shall not become effective until two copies of the Constitution and amendments have been submitted to the President of the AFL-CIO and they have issued a letter of approval to the Council. Proposed amendments may be submitted for preapproval to the President of the AFL-CIO.

Section 5. A parliamentarian shall be elected by the delegates or appointed by the executive board. The parliamentarian shall advise delegates and officers on rules of procedure when called upon during meetings and/or when such advice is required for meeting clarity.

Article XIV Code of Conduct

Section 1. PURPOSE

MLK Labor is committed to providing an environment free from discrimination and harassment, regardless of an individual's race, ethnicity, religion, color, sex, age, national origin, sexual orientation, disability, gender identity or expression, ancestry, pregnancy, or any other characteristic prohibited by law. As such, MLK Labor will not tolerate discriminatory, harassing or otherwise unacceptable behavior in the workplace or at any of its activities, events or meetings. It adopts the following code of conduct, and expects everyone in the workplace and those who participate in any of its activities, events or meetings to abide by it. This code of conduct does not apply to matters that are covered by MLK Labor's anti-discrimination and anti-harassment policy and complaint procedure.

Section 2 DEFINITIONS

Section 2-A. DISCRIMINATION

It is discrimination to make any decision or judgment based on another person's race, ethnicity, religion, color, sex, age, national origin, sexual orientation, disability, gender identity or expression, ancestry, pregnancy, or any other characteristic protected by law.

Section 2-B. HARASSMENT

Harassment consists of unwelcome verbal, visual or physical conduct that is based on another person's race, ethnicity, religion, color, sex, age, national origin, sexual orientation, disability, gender identity or expression, ancestry, pregnancy, or any other characteristic protected by law. It may include, but is not limited to, actions such as the use of epithets, slurs, negative stereotyping, jokes, or threatening, intimidating, or hostile acts that relate to sex, race, age, disability, or other protected categories. Harassment also may include written or graphic material that denigrates or shows hostility toward an individual or group based on protected characteristics, whether that material is sent by email, or placed on walls, bulletin boards, computer screens or other devices, or elsewhere on the premises of an activity, event or meeting.

Section 2-C. SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Sexual harassment can involve unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal, visual, or physical conduct of a sexual nature. It can involve conduct by a person of either gender toward a person of the same or opposite gender.

Section 3. EXPECTED BEHAVIOR

MLK Labor expects everyone in the workplace and all participants in MLK Labor activities, events, or meetings to conform to the following code of conduct:

- > Respect others and their views
- > Recognize and value individual differences
- > Be sure you do not engage in aggressive, bullying, or intimidating behavior
- > Do not engage in discriminatory or harassing behavior

Section 3-A. UNACCEPTABLE BEHAVIOR

MLK Labor is a democratic institution that values open and vigorous discussion of the issues facing working people and the labor movement. This code of conduct is not intended to restrict free and open debate but rather is concerned with preventing unacceptable behavior, as detailed below. Unacceptable behavior includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Discriminatory or harassing speech or actions, including cyber bullying or cyber harassment, in the workplace or by any participant at an MLK Labor activity, event, or meeting, including all related activities or one-on-one communications surrounding MLK Labor activity, event, or meeting
- Harmful or offensive verbal or written comments or visual images related to race, ethnicity, religion, color, sex, age, national origin, sexual orientation, disability, gender identity or expression, ancestry, pregnancy, or any other characteristic protected by law
- Inappropriate use of nudity and/or sexual images in work or public spaces
- Bullying or stalking
- Harassing photography or recording
- Uninvited sexual attention or contact
- Physical assault (including uninvited touching or groping)
- Real or implied threat of physical harm

Section 4. IF SUBJECT TO UNACCEPTABLE BEHAVIOR

Before the start of any large MLK Labor activity, event or meeting, attendees will be informed of this code of conduct, and an MLK Labor staff or leadership person to whom complaints may be directed will be identified for all attendees. If the MLK Labor activity, event, or meeting is reoccurring, notification of the code of conduct and identification of the designated staff or leadership person will occur yearly, or as necessary when the designated staff or leadership person changes.

If you are subject to what you believe is unacceptable behavior under this code of conduct or witness such behavior, please inform the designated MLK Labor person immediately. If that designated person is not available, you may inform any other MLK Labor staff person or leader, who will work with the designated person to respond to the complaint.

MLK Labor takes these complaints seriously and may, at its discretion, take action that it deems appropriate upon assessing the situation. Possible responses may include a warning to or expulsion of the alleged offender from the MLK Labor activity, event, or meeting. Additionally, where appropriate, MLK Labor may inform the alleged offender's affiliate or employing entity of the offending behavior and complaint, or initiate disciplinary proceedings for those who hold a position subject to discipline by MLK Labor or under its Rules Governing AFL-CIO Central Labor Councils. If needed or requested, staff will help complainants contact security or local law enforcement, provide escorts, or otherwise assist complainants experiencing unacceptable behavior to feel safe for the duration of the activity, event, or meeting.

Any MLK Labor staff person who is subject to unacceptable behavior should contact Samantha Connolly, AFL-CIO director of human resources.

Any complaint brought to MLK Labor staff or leadership attention will be treated confidentially to the extent possible to properly assess the situation. The MLK Labor will take all appropriate steps to ensure that the complainant is no longer subject to the unacceptable behavior.

Section 5. RETALIATION

MLK Labor will not tolerate retaliation against any individual who complains of unacceptable behavior under this code of conduct. It will take every step necessary and appropriate to ensure that retaliation does not occur, and if it believes that retaliation has occurred, MLK Labor will take immediate action to stop the retaliation.

Section 6. APPLICATION

This code of conduct shall be binding upon each MLK Labor workplace, activities, events, and meetings. Any questions or issues with the response to a complaint may be directed to the AFL-CIO governance director or staff at the national AFL-CIO.

Section 7. Ombudsperson

In accordance with the AFL-CIO Anti-Harassment and Anti-Discrimination Policy, an Ombudsperson shall be designated, and complaints regarding potential conduct violations shall be directed to them.

Section 1-D. All affiliates shall be notified of special meetings of the Council.

Section 2. Questions coming before any meeting of the Council may be decided by an "aye" and "nay" vote, or show of hands, or by a division of the House. Except on Roll Call, each delegate shall have one vote.

Section 2-A. A roll call vote may be demanded by twenty percent of the delegates present at any regular or special meeting of the Council. If the request for a roll call is supported by the requisite number of delegates present, the delegates present shall be entitled to cast as many votes as there are members of the local union the delegates represent. The membership of the local union, for purpose of roll call, shall be determined by the average per capita payments, plus credited exonerations (dispensation), to the Council for the two preceding calendar quarters prior to the quarter in which the roll call vote is taken. The number of votes each delegate shall be entitled to shall be determined by dividing the number of votes the local union is entitled to by the number of delegates present and wishing to vote. On a roll call vote, delegates representing organizations other than local unions shall have one vote, except as specified in Article IV, Section 1. Roll call voting procedures shall apply to all elections of officers and Executive Board members at large.

Section 2-B. The Executive Secretary-Treasurer shall be prepared at each meeting to call the roll and announce the total number of votes to which each affiliate is credited for the purpose of a roll call.

If there is no quorum for any Board meeting, any properly submitted request, in accordance with Section 4 of the By-laws, shall be considered at the next Board meeting or Council meeting, whichever occurs first. On urgent matters that are non-controversial, a poll of the Executive Board may be taken by phone or e-mail. A poll of the Board will be considered non-controversial only if there are no objections from any member of the Board.

Section 4. All resolutions and requests to be considered at any regular meeting of the Executive Board must be submitted in writing to the Executive Secretary-Treasurer's office not later than 5:00 P.M. on the day prior to the Executive Board meeting, and referred to the Executive Board, in conformity with Section 4-A of the Bylaws, before the meeting is called to order. Any other resolutions or requests may be presented upon approval of the body by a two-thirds vote.

Section 4-A. No resolution or request may be presented to the Council for consideration, either at an Executive Board or delegates meeting, unless it emanates from an affiliated organization and contains the signature of an officer of that affiliate. Exceptions include COPE motions, which may be made as stated in Article VII, Section 2-B, requests referred from the Executive Secretary-Treasurer and motions from any committee of the Council. All requests so presented from a committee must have the approval attached of not less than a majority of the full membership of the committee.

Section 5.
